Notice

This is for the information of all faculty members, research scholars, and postgraduate students that the Department is organizing various events in the form of Shloka and Debate competition, Shobhayatra, Special Lecture Program and Cultural Program on 27th August 2024 to observe and celebrate Sanskrit Day.

The classes, both at the north campus and south Delhi campus, will remain suspended on the day for enabling the faculty members and students to participate in the Sanskrit Day Samaroha.

All are requested to join and participate.
